Janet Folger

Janet is the founder and president of a pro-life, cultural issues organization called Faith2Action. She previously served, for six years, as the National Director of the Center for Reclaiming America, founded by the late Dr. D. James Kennedy, and for nine years as the Legislative Director of Ohio Right to Life. During her time with Ohio RTL, Janet successfully lobbied for the nation's first partial-birth abortion ban and many other important pro-life initiatives.

Janet hosts a daily radio program that is heard in 27 markets. She also has a 60-second daily commentary that is heard on about 70 radio stations. She writes a weekly column for WorldNetDaily and is the author of four books. She has appeared on practically every major U.S. TV news program, including the NBC Today Show, ABC Evening News, Nightline, and CBS This Morning.
